Shalom Mennonite Congregation

October 28, 2018 | All Souls Day

The saints are all equal. They ask us to participate, to be fully here on earth. The fulcrum of this universe may ultimately be a passionate mutuality in which we surrender any separate definition of ourselves and discover that we are who we are together—in fundamental communion—in relationship with everything that is.

Gunilla Brodde Norris,
Journeying in Place: Reflections from a Country Garden

*As disciples of Jesus and lovers of God we seek to be a community where God's love transcends all barriers that oppress and exclude people.
These barriers include race, culture, gender, social status, sexual identity and economics as well as misunderstanding and prejudice.*

Welcome

Call to worship

Right: In all our weakness and strength,

Left: with our youth-filled spirits and aging bodies,

All: we come to be your people, Incarnate Love.

Right: Strong in faith and eager with questions,

Left: singing our praise and whispering our prayers,

All: we come to be your people, Faithful Spirit.

Right: Filled with saintly determination

Left: yet mindful of our human limitations,

All: we come to be your people, Justice Bearer.

Right: Made strong in your endless love for us,

Left: we know ourselves to be yours

All: and we come to be your people, Creator of Life.

Litany for Remembering

We gather this morning in this season of resting and dormancy, when deep gratitude and deep sorrow mingle.

We thank God for that great circle in which we are united with all those who have gone before us.

We set aside this evening to remember and honor our loved ones who have died; to light candles and tell stories to reflect their ongoing presence in and influence on our lives.

Though we are separated by death they are held in God's heart. Though we cannot touch them, they are close at hand.

In the rising of the sun and its going down,

We remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,

We remember them.

In the opening buds and in the rebirth of spring,

We remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,

We remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,

We remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,

We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,

We remember them.

When we are lost and are sick of heart,

We remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,

We remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live,

For they are now a part of us,

As we remember them.

Announcements

Parents: A reminder that a Nursery is available for families with children aged 5 and younger. For the safety of the youngest children among us, we kindly request that children within this age range only are dropped off at the nursery. Thanks!

Mixed Forest Formation—Nov. 4: What does it mean to be Living as Witnesses? Join us in discussing and embodying this week's theme from the Journey Forward curriculum with Mennonite Church USA.

Shalom has been involved in the local Sanctuary Movement. As part of this work a TPS bus will arrive here in Harrisonburg on Sunday, Nov 4. These folks are from countries at risk of losing their temporary protective status (TPS). They have been traveling the country educating communities about TPS, and we are the last stop before they head to Washington D.C. We are looking for host homes for 15-20 bus riders. All that's needed is a bed, breakfast, and a warm welcome for the nights of Nov. 4 & 5. Please contact Tina Beachy (tbeachy530@gmail.com) at Community Mennonite Church if you are willing to host one or more folks from this bus. Be sure to check the Shalom e-Newsletter sent Oct. 25 for a detailed schedule of events.

Come join friends of Highland Retreat at the Annual Highland Banquet on Thursday, Nov. 1 from 6-8:15 p.m. in Lindale Mennonite's fellowship hall. Enjoy a delicious dinner and a program updating you on Highland's last year, addressing the relevance of Christian camping, and presenting a vision for the next decade. Child care (with pizza dinner) is available for children ages 4 and up. A freewill offering will be taken to benefit Highland. For more information, or to register to attend, visit www.highlandretreat.org, call 540-705-0554, or e-mail info@highlandretreat.org.

It's magic nametag month! Pastoral Team and Hospitality will have nametags available every Sunday, now through October. Wear one high near your shoulder and—voila!—you'll be amazed how many people remember your name!

All are invited to complete a Covenant Survey—it's one of the main ways we can take a pulse of your interest in participating in the life of Shalom. Complete it online at shalommc.org/get-involved, or pick up and return a copy on the hospitality table at worship.

New small groups have formed over the summer and are still being formed. If you are interested in joining a small group, please contact Sharon Landis at spiritsong.sl@gmail.com with your interests, and your contact information.
