Announcements

BreakOut Sundays: Starting mid-June through mid-August, every other Sunday will be a BreakOut Sunday -- an opportunity to gather somewhere outdoors in the city, weather permitting, with a smaller group of Shalomers. Each gathering will have a guide or plan for conversation or a variety of activities around the theme of the previous week's worship gathering. Hopefully these can 1) serve those who just can't / don't engage well via Zoom and can't come to EMS in person yet, 2) help all of us start connecting and learning again what it's like to be together with other people.

Administrative and Ministry Councils are grateful for Shalom's flexibility and view this summer through a hopeful lens as a time to begin reconnecting as well as experimenting with the kinds of practices we will need in order to eventually gather in larger numbers.

For the details informing our planning, review Shalom's Guidance for Gathering in Covid.
